

Pastor Dawn Scott Damon
Author, Speaker,
Freedom Coach

Dawn Scott Damon is a pastor, speaker and author whose most recent book When the Woman Abused Was You, was released in 2017. Dawn's first book in the series When A Woman You Love Was Abused (a Readers' Favorite Gold Medal Award winner) published by Kregel Publications, has touched thousands of lives – both men and women.

Dawn worked closely with The New York Times bestselling author Cecil Murphey (90 Minutes in Heaven, When A Man You Love Was Abused), together they presented two conferences entitled, When Someone You Love Was Abused, help for those suffering from childhood traumas.

Dawn also writes a blog for women who have experienced trauma called, Freedom Girl Sisterhood. www.freedomgirlsisterhood.com

As a popular keynote and conference speaker, Dawn Scott Damon is an engaging and dynamic communicator who inspires her audience to maximize their God-given purpose and potential in Christ. Dreams are ignited as Dawn uses sound biblical teaching, personal stories and splashes of humor to awaken the gifts and callings in every person.

As an ordained minister with the Wesleyan Church, Pastor Dawn is the Lead Vision Architect of a multicultural, multigenerational church called Tribes in the North Grand Rapids area; a church that looks and loves like Heaven. Rev. 7:9

Dawn's other ministry facets include founding a women's conference called FreedomGirls, hosting Freedom Girls Sisterhood, her own radio program on the Diva Radio Network, and numerous other activities.

As a singer/songwriter, Dawn has produced three musical CD projects and produces numerous audio teachings. Whether she is speaking, producing radio and webcasts, or preaching to large crowds, the power of her testimony has been used by God to ignite hope and healing in the lives of thousands.

Dawn says, "My heart is to communicate the story of Jesus Christ in such a compelling way, that hearts are engaged, dreams are ignited, and lives are transformed!"
